

Welcome to the South African Association for Energy Economics (SAAEE)

We would like to welcome you as a member of the SAAEE, pending payment of your membership fee.

All applications from now on will be joining SAAEE and IAEE for the calendar year 2022.

You have been offered a 30-day complimentary membership pending the payment of your membership fee. SAAEE membership runs from the 1st of January to the 31st of December each year, as per the IAEE constitution.

Your SAAEE membership provides you the following benefits:

- Membership of the International Association for Energy Economics (IAEE)
- Access to top international academic publications in the energy field through the IAEE
- Free participation at SAAEE meetings and events
- Inclusion in SAAEE members directory and access to the members-only area
- Access to a dynamic and active association community to stay updated on developments in the energy environment
- Networking opportunities through the SAAEE and IAEE on matters of mutual interest
